10 STEPS TO A NEW LIFE .....	14
1 - GOD WANTS A RELATIONSHIP WITH YOU .....	16
God created us to have a relationship of love with Him.....	16
Love implies freedom .....	16
Freedom implies a risk .....	16
Man made a choice that had dramatic consequences.....	17
God still loves us even if we rebelled against Him.....	17
The final answer is in Jesus.....	17
2 - JESUS IS THE ANSWER.....	20
He was 100% man:.....	20
He had the same body, emotions, will and mind like us .....	20
He suffered like us.....	20
He was 100% God .....	21
1. He did miracles like nobody else.....	22
2. He claimed to be without sin .....	22
3. He claimed He had the authority to forgive sins.....	22
4. He claimed many other things nobody else has ever claimed .....	23
5. He claimed He would rise from the dead and He did it! .....	23
3 - THE BAD NEWS.....	27
You have sinned.....	27
Your sins control you.....	27
Your sins take away joy and peace .....	28
Your sins will find you out and you shall suffer .....	28
Your sins bring curses.....	28
Your sins have crucified the Son of God.....	29
You cannot remove your condemnation by your good deeds .....	29
In this life your sins separate you from God.....	30
After death your sins will completely separate you from God .....	30
You will be judged and condemned.....	31
4 - THE GOOD NEWS.....	34
On the cross Jesus took on himself your sins, your curses and your condemnation .....	34
Jesus took on himself your guilt .....	34
On the cross, Jesus was abandoned by God to take your place.....	35
All your sins have been forgiven.....	35
God has adopted you as His own child into His family (the Church) .....	35
You will never be condemned .....	36
God offers you an amazing life with the following 12 benefits.....	36

Do you live like Jesus? .....	400
Are you a leader according to the Bible? .....	402

About the author

For further information you can go on my own website:

healingallnations.org

I did not grow up religious and never set foot in any religious building until I was 18 years old. At that time, while isolated as a shepherd in the Swiss Alps, I accidentally discovered a Bible (I had never seen one before!). As I began reading it on my own, I became fascinated with the Gospels and fell in love with Jesus. A few months later, when I came down from the mountains, I found a group of traveling Gypsies who baptized me. After talking with them, I knew I wanted to proclaim Jesus to all the nations of the earth!

Since 1983, for over 40 years, I have been planting and nurturing churches all over the world.

Some churches grew rapidly, with hundreds of members, while others were smaller, with 50 to 100 people. In some places, I stayed just a few months, but in most, I spent an average of about five years.

My journey has taken me to well-known cities like Geneva, Boston, Paris, Berlin, Zurich, Vancouver, Odessa, and Jerusalem, as well as lesser-known places like Wroclaw in Poland; Irkutsk on the beautiful Baikal Lake near Mongolia; Gorno-Altai near the mountainous border of China; Barnaul in the cold plains of central Siberia; Voronezh in the heart of Western Russia; and several cities in Israel, including Nazareth, Rishon Letzion, Ashkelon, and Beersheba.

In all of this, I have been driven by the passion to restore the early church model, aiming to better reflect Jesus and change the world. As a result, I have witnessed countless baptisms and miracles of all kinds, while also facing the constant trials of starting churches and being a foreigner on three different continents and in eight countries. Due to my ongoing quest for truth, I have twice lost everything and endured two long, painful spiritual deserts. The first time was with a denomination that was once the fastest growing in the world. As it became increasingly legalistic, abusive, and sectarian, I left, effectively "losing" 10 years of my life. The second time, after a radical encounter with the Holy Spirit, I found myself at odds with a denomination opposed to charismatic experiences, resulting in another eight years of loss.

My intellectual and professional pursuits are as diverse as my passion for life. I initially studied agriculture and worked in that field for a few years before majoring in painting and history of art in Geneva. I later studied geopolitics at the Sorbonne in Paris and worked as a top manager in business. I earned a BA in linguistics from Russia, becoming fluent in half a dozen languages. Later, I completed a master's degree in Global Leadership from Fuller Theological Seminary in California. My spiritual gifts include leadership, healing, and prophecy.

I was born and raised in Geneva, making me Swiss, with a German mother and a Swiss French father. While changing planes, I met my future Russian wife, Anna, in an airport. I fell in love with her immediately, took her phone number within 30 minutes, and three months later, on November 6, 1994, we were married. She grew up in the Soviet Union and, like many Russian Jews of that time, had never attended a synagogue or read the Bible. In 1991, after just two weeks of translating Bible lessons for American missionaries, she became convinced about her Messiah and was baptized.

Our two American sons are believers and work in North America, one in the film industry and the other in politics.

In 2019, we made Aliyah to Israel, becoming Israeli citizens. We have started numerous congregations across the Holy Land, encouraging messianic assemblies and teaching nations about restoring the Jewish roots of the early Church.

The goal and challenges of this book

After 40 years of personally bringing numerous individuals to Christ, starting churches all over the world, and years of graduate studies, I have gained some convictions of what Christianity should look like. This book was first written for the Slavic world, but it is relevant for anyone in the western world, particularly non-religious people. Many of its principles are simple enough to transcend most cultures.

This manual, which gives a very practical foundation of the Christian life, has 3 goals:

The first part gives you a pathway so that you can personally convert unbelievers.

The second part gives to your converts a very practical foundation of the Christian life.

The third part is for the leaders who want to build a growing, healthy and more biblical church.

In which ways this book is different from other books ?

It has some views that are very challenging, as you can see below:

First part: the process of the conversion

- Before unbelievers are baptized, they should have a very clear and specific understanding of what they should repent from, go through a deliverance from demonic influences, and fully accept the high price of following Jesus.
- Everyone should receive as soon as possible the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit, not a cheap and weak speaking in tongues. Real power with real supernatural results.

Second part: how to live the Christian life

- Disciples should study the Bible and pray every day. They should as well have the humility to constantly analyze theological views that are different than theirs.
- Disciples should all eagerly seek supernatural gifts and constantly grow in them. This is necessary to convert unbelievers and edify the church.
- Believers should always have enough financial resources to help others. But at the same time they should have a simple and very sacrificial lifestyle of living by faith. The theology of prosperity is often a coverup for greed and materialism.
- Christians should all be very healthy. All want healing miracles, but unfortunately very few are willing to be wise and disciplined in the 5 areas of health described in this book.
- All Christians should evangelize until they find open people whom they baptize. After this, they should personally train their own converts in the basics of the Christian life. A Christian who is not personally making disciples is selfish and useless to God. God's strategy to change the world is making disciples one person at a time.

Bible knowledge
without character
change is useless
(2 Pet. 1:8 )

- Christians should never ever gossip and keep resentments against others. Instead, they should be thoroughly trained to become experts at solving conflicts.
- Disciples should easily welcome constructive criticisms and at the same time they should always speak the truth with love. This takes hard and long training, and this is what the church is for.
- Disciples should be submissive and sacrificial in the various roles they have in life.
- All believers should willingly be involved in deep relationships of mutual accountability that transform their characters. If someone does not change, he is prideful and ineffective.

Third part: Church Leaders

- All leaders should be examples in how they evangelize, convert and make disciples who make disciples. If they don't do this themselves how can they expect their congregations to do the same?
- Leaders should all choose and train their own disciples. (For instance mature evangelists should mentor young evangelists, pastors future pastors, etc....). Few leaders today have been empowered and loved by "spiritual fathers" and this why very few have their own "Timothies".
- Church leaders should not only daily study their Bibles, but they should have the humility to constantly study biblical doctrines or world related issues that are different than their own.
- Leaders should have church gatherings where people can really meet God, and where conversions and supernatural manifestations happen regularly. This is the NT standard.
- Leader should identify legalism so as to foster an atmosphere of grace in their churches.

Bible knowledge
without making disciples is disobedience
(Matt.28:18-20)

Finally, and this is what sets this book totally apart from any other book, every leader should know and meet all the biblical standards concerning the 6-fold ministry.

It only when the Church will have true biblical pastors, biblical evangelists, etc... that we will be closer to the model of the Early Church!
